DEDICATION

For 30 years, Mr. John Ryan has been a pillar of friendship, advice and tolerance to thousands of Albany High Students.

As a teacher and counselor Mr. Ryan has generously given his time, energy, and affection to all. His door has always been open to anybody—whether the boy or girl wished to talk about school work, personal problems, or just “bat the breeze”—Mr. Ryan has always been a good listener.

To you, then, John Ryan, we dedicate this book. May your years of retirement be as long and rewarding as your service was to our school.

I consider it a distinct privilege to have been associated with Mr. Ryan. I know that this feeling is shared by faculty, parents, and hundreds of students. His career has been characterized by a devotion to education in general and to individual students in particular to a degree that is unusual today.

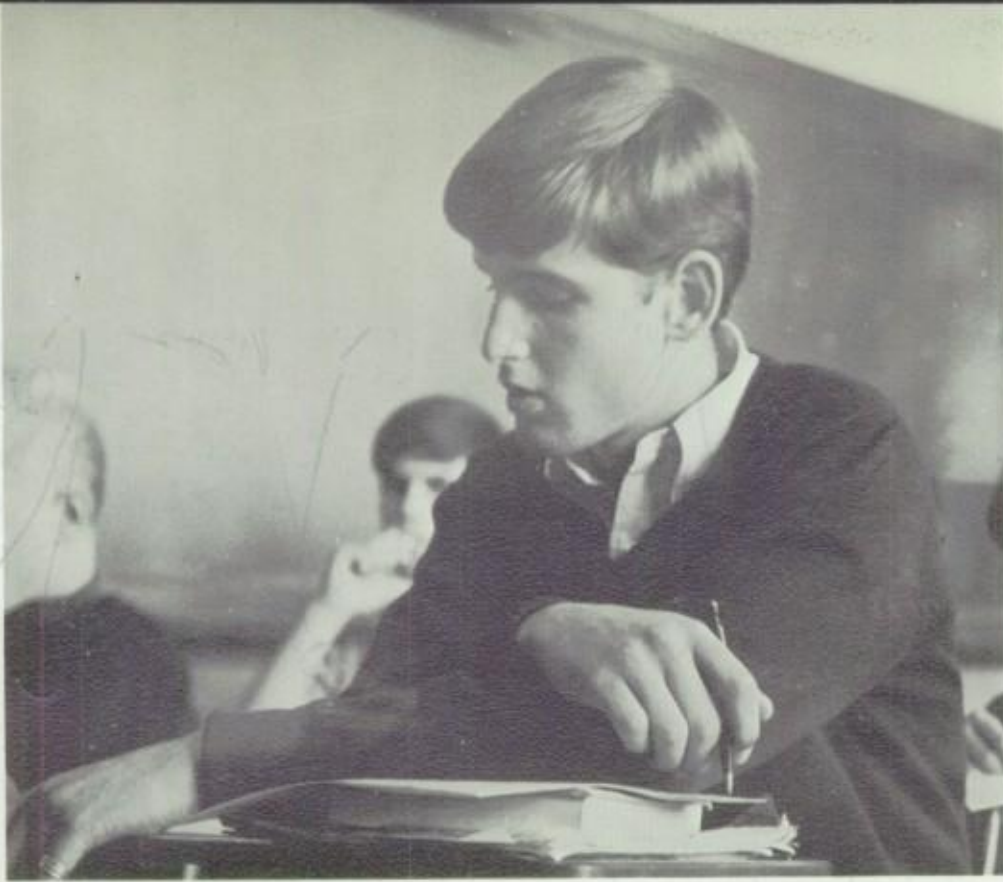

Former students and counselors will attest to his generosity and helpfulness in terms of extra time and energy well beyond the call of duty. We all have learned a great deal from Mr. Ryan and will be ever indebted to him.

We wish him many happy years of retirement.

Harry J. Price, Principal

TEEN
AGE!

Oakland Tribune, Sat., Dec. 23, 1967

The gifts of youth.

The quiet poetry in his eyes reflected the confusion of his world as the five-year-old retarded child sat listlessly by the window in the Wednesday afternoon sunlight.

Something stirred in the doorway. He turned quickly . . . and the poetry sparkled. A delighted laugh burst from his lips at the sight of a blue rocking-horse and Santa Claus with a bright red wagon . . .

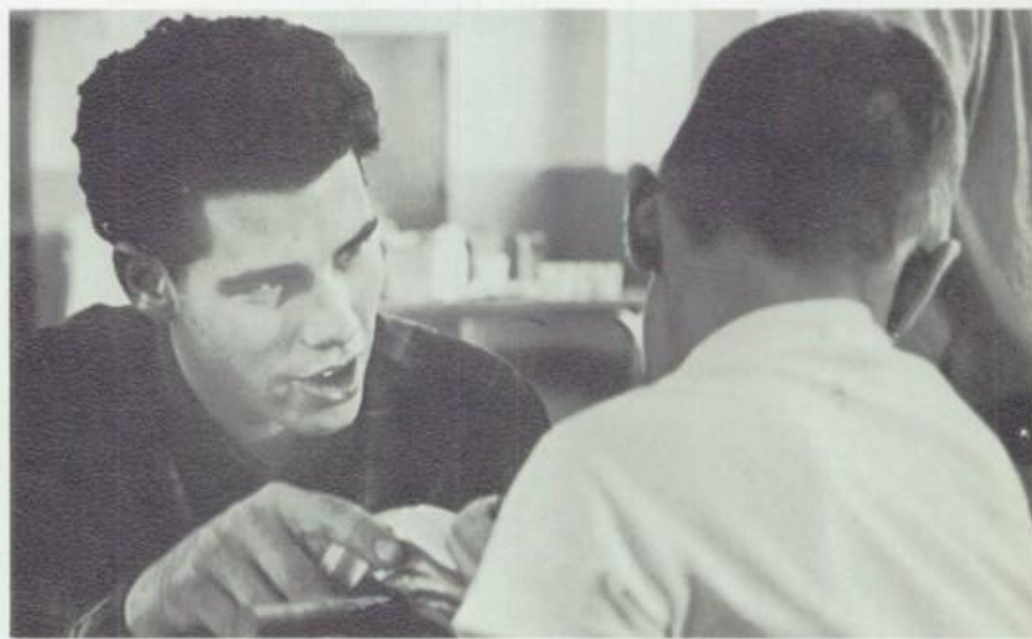

It was a youthful spirit of giving that entered the doorway of Sonoma State Hospital as more than sixty Albany High School seniors made their eighth annual pilgrimage with punch, cookies, and toys to let Christmas happen for patients in the children's wards. Each student took one child for two hours of joy, laughter and affection . . . There was peace and contentment for the children.

For the students, parting brought tears and pain. A sense of quiet desperation mingled with a common prayer, "Let there be miracles for the children . . ."

Peggy King

A magic spell is cast by good witch Sharon Fricken.

With Jingle Bells and a blue rocking-horse, Lloyd Hawkinson succeeds.

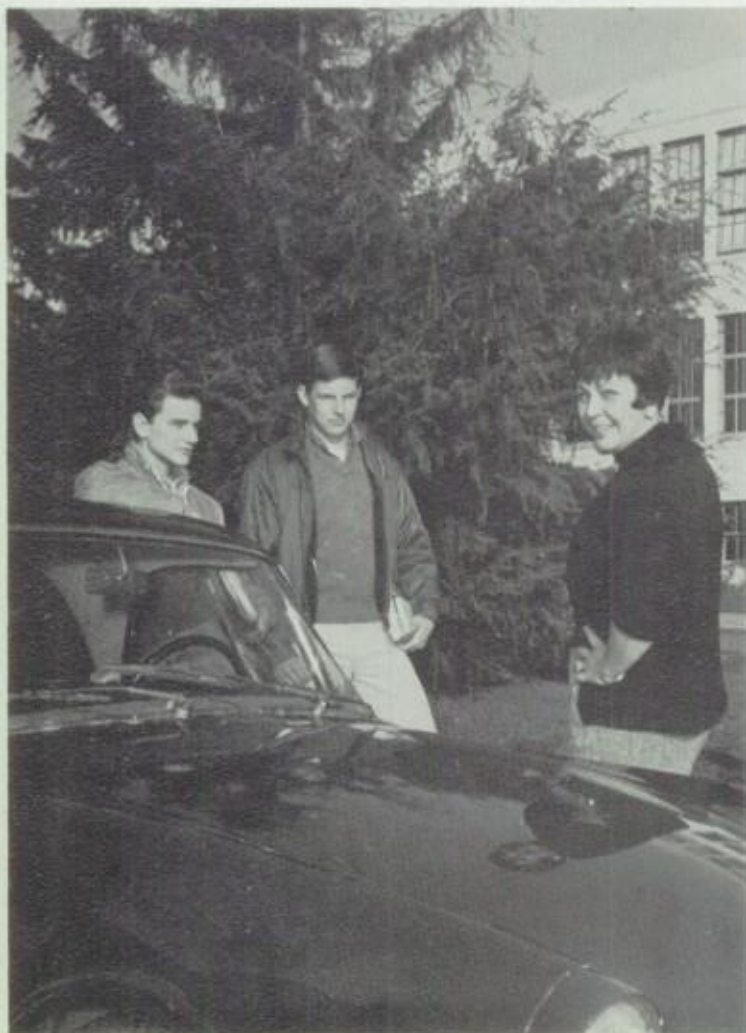

Nina Camilli hears a child's dream of toys and sleigh bells and Santa.

Students find a way to bridge the gap of understanding.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Kenneth Forry
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. William Woolworth
Director of Instruction

Mrs. Kay Geering, Mr. Max Kelley, Mr. Kenneth Forry, Mr. Charles Pinkham, Mr. Robert Nehls,
Mr. Milton Porter.

(Mrs. Anita Tronoff elected to the board in April 1968)

Society today demands quality education for our young people. Albany citizens, through the Board of Education, have provided the wherewithal to meet this demand. Teachers, facilities and equipment are here to serve young people. All students are urged to accept these privileges, use them actively and wisely, and pass the tradition on to their own children, for our democratic society is based on education.

Harry J. Price, Principal

This yearbook is unique in a number of ways. Aside from the fact that no other class at any other school will produce one exactly like it, its most outstanding characteristic will be its increasing value to you over the years and its sharp loss of value when you and it part company. You will probably soon conclude, as many before you have, that the original investment of work and money pays increasingly valuable dividends.

Carl O. Couch, Vice Principal

NOW FRIENDS, A WORD FROM OUR SPONSER. DON'T TOUCH THAT DIAL.

The experience of high school is a variable thing. It can be happy, frustrating, unpleasant, ridiculous, rewarding, helpful. It is seldom all bad or all good. Whatever it means to you is determined almost solely by you. It is hoped you have found it an experience from which you have benefited.

Whatever Albany High School is and whatever it means to its student body is a result of what that student body makes it.

Johneva Pond, Dean of Students

The selection of Junior Varsity Cheerleaders was something new at A.H.S. this year. Their enthusiastic presence at the Junior Varsity games really helped arouse spirit among the underclassmen, and proved that the younger students are really star supporters of the red and white.

The spirit at Albany High School has been greatly improved by this year's Cheerleaders and Pom Pons. We wish to congratulate them on their great show of spirit at the rallies and the games and hope that this spirit will continue in the years to come.

Coaches Meyers, Hoyle, and Greenwood.

This year the Varsity won only one game, but when very few boys turn out for football, we can't expect miracles. At the end of the last game we had only fourteen fellows in shape to play! And we had only nineteen players at the start of that game! As Coach Hoyle said, "If more boys came out we would be successful."

The bright spots of the season included Rick Cavallera, who received the Berkeley Gazette's Prep of the Week award, and was named not only to the All-League second string, but to the All-Area first string; Steve Layne, who also was named to the All-League and All-Area teams, as well as receiving the Most Valuable Lineman award; Bruce Schroffel, Most Valuable Back, and Robby Tracey, Most Inspirational Player.

Since most of this year's players are seniors, we can only hope that a nucleus of juniors and J.V. gridders can develop into a winning team.

This year's Junior Varsity season, although unsuccessful, produced several players who will help next year's Varsity squad. Key individuals were Most Valuable Back and co-captain Martin Manuel, and also co-captains Steve Eggert and Dave Potts. Other outstanding players, according to Coach Scullion, included Marc Granko, Vaughn Nordby, and Rich Goforth.

The defense was able to shut out two opponents and limit two others to two touchdowns or less.

According to Coach Ortlieb, "This group of boys could be Albany's next football hope. They, as a group, have good spirit and attitude. They have a good relationship with each other.

"If they can continue to work together and get a little support in some of the positions, they could win many games."

This year the Albany Tennis team had a very good season, finishing in third place in the league. Outstanding players Jim Perry and Ted Valli competed in the EB-DVAL tournament and both tied for third place.

Next year's prospects are dim, according to Coach Choy, as most of this year's players are seniors. Hopes for next year rest on Dennis Simon, John Koser and Chris Mikuriya.

This year's Varsity did not experience a very successful season, finishing with a record of four wins and sixteen losses. Although not successful in the won and lost column, the fighting Cougars put up many good battles against taller and more experienced teams.

Steve Layne was elected team captain, Rich Sandretto was chosen the Most Valuable Player, and Lewis Oliver was the top scorer and rebounder. Coach Charles Clarke feels that four Juniors—Bill Haskins, Mike Piasente, John Whitman and Tom Dyer—should lead the Varsity to a more successful season next year.

Steve Layne goes animal against John Swett!

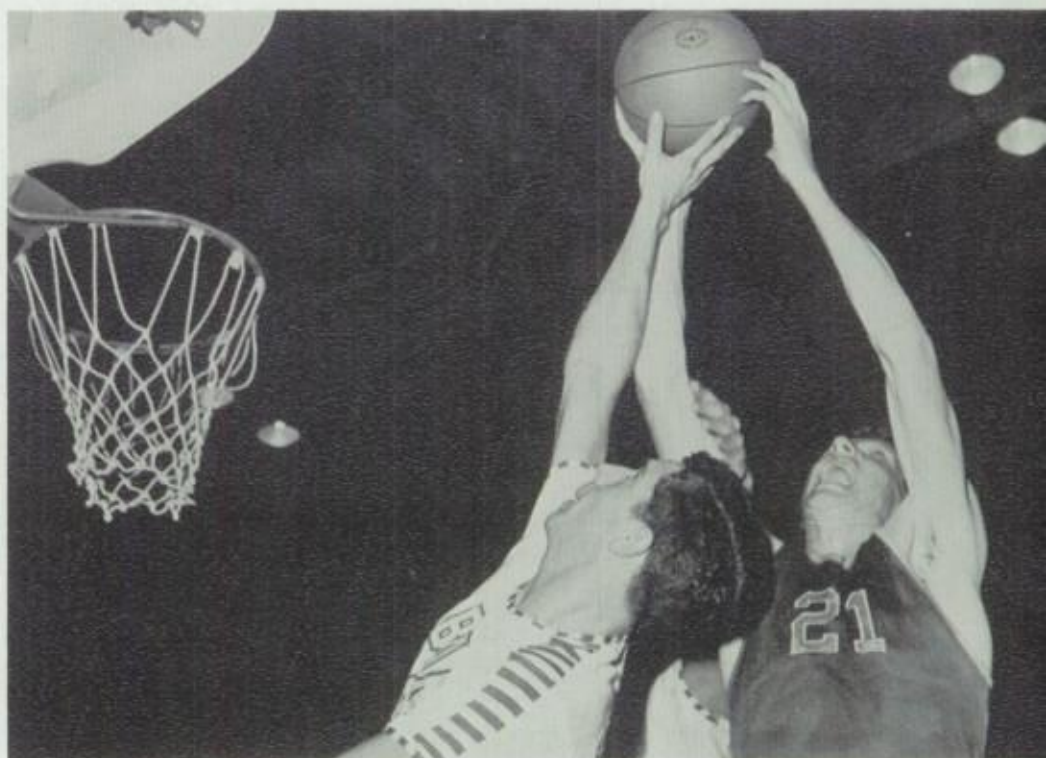

Curt "Bubba" Pihl grabs another rebound.

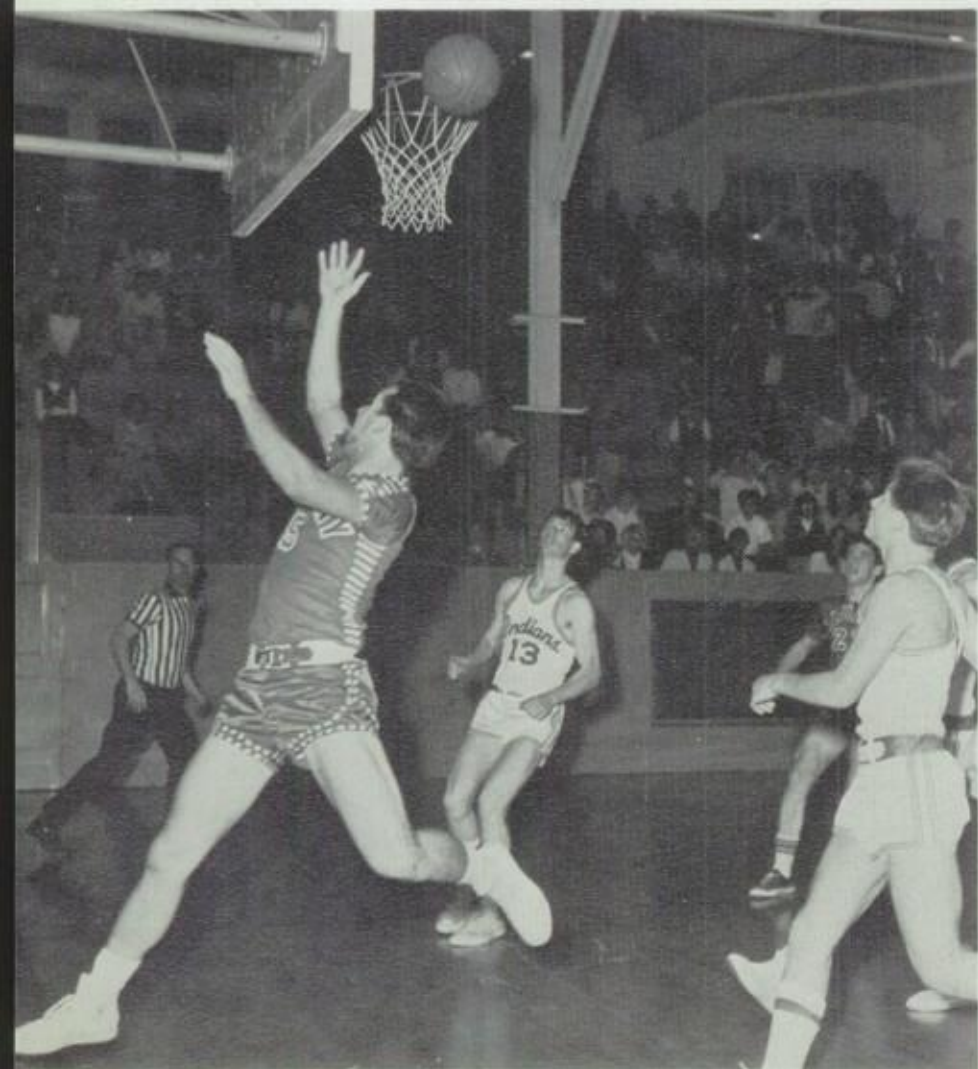

Coach Clarke gives the team a few words of wisdom.

Lewis Oliver strains to get the ball while an unidentified Albany hand helps him out.

J.V. Vaughn Nordby goes for a loose ball.

George Williams looks back to check out his shot.

Brad Smith goes for two.

Bill Haskins' jumping ability would be useful for the track team.

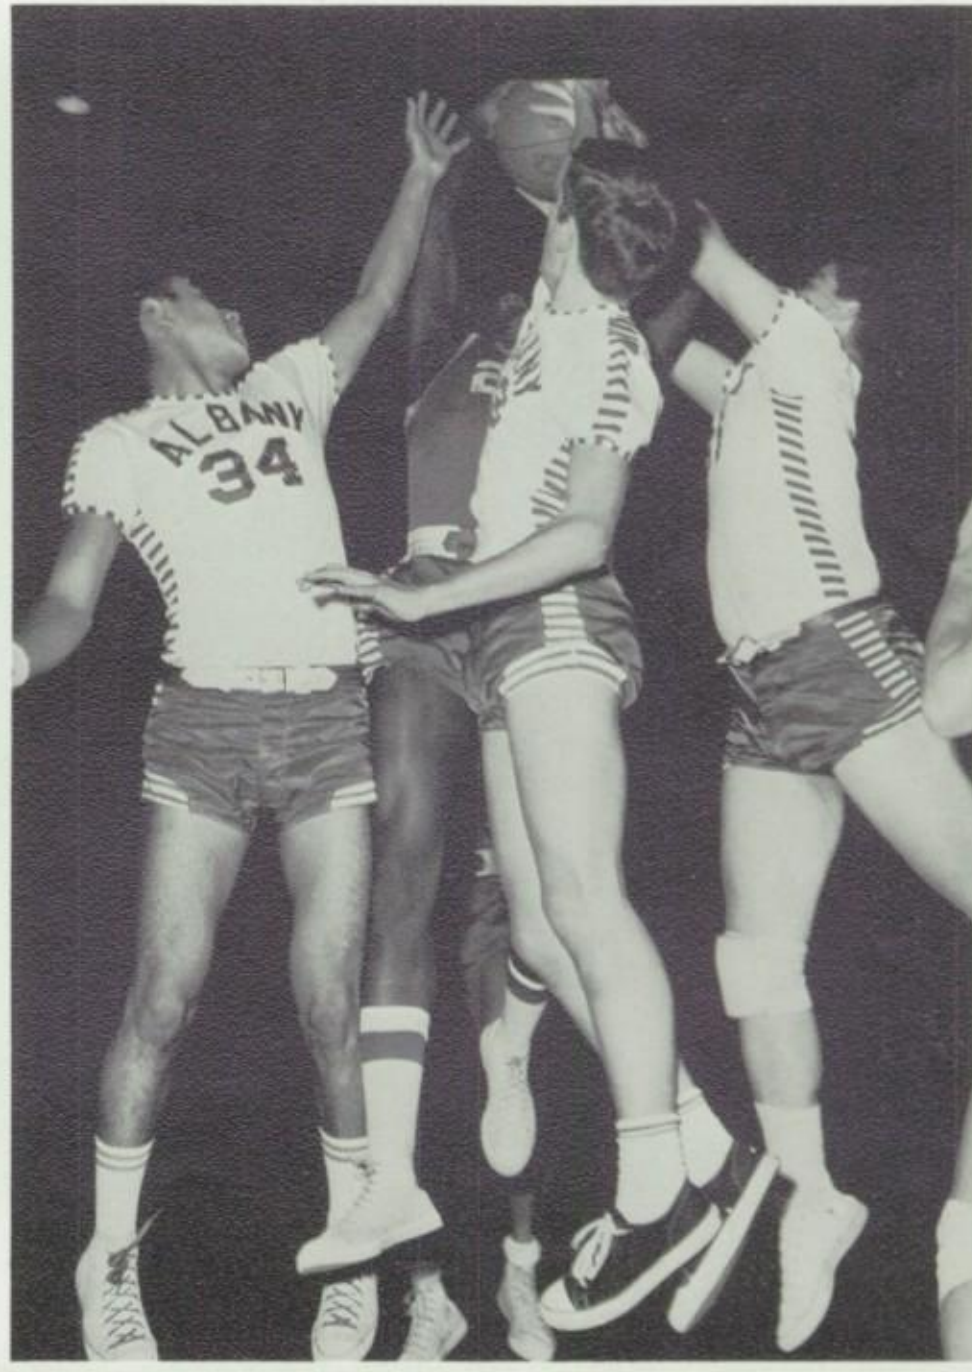

Lewis Oliver scores against St. Mary's.

Mike Piasente tries for two points.

J.V. players Steve Valenzuela, Mike Griffin, and Curt Pihl all go for the ball at once.

Coach Craige Ortlieb attributed the J.V. team's poor showing during the first half of this season to lack of experienced players. The club worked hard but didn't give up, which resulted in a very good second half. Several of the J.V.'s losses were quite close, with only one or two points separating the squad from their opponents. Mr. Ortlieb feels that guards Tim Taylor, Bret Felton, Vaughn Nordby and Tim Johnson all developed nicely as the season progressed and finally gave the team game control, which had been its weakest point. Coach Ortlieb cited Curt Pihl and Steve Valenzuela for their scoring efforts, and Pihl and Marc Granko for their rebounding.

The Frosh team, under the direction of Coach Scullion, won four of the twelve games that they played this season. Mr. Scullion feels that of all the players on the team, three deserve mention. They are Jim Tamura, Captain and Most Valuable Player; Martin Valli, top scorer; and one of the most inspirational players on the team, Bob Fisher. These boys will hopefully form the nucleus of a winning J.V. club next year.

Leroy Cisneros is taken down by Liberty's Varsity man.

Captain Rick Cavallera pins his opponent.

Jim Hermann goes for a takedown.

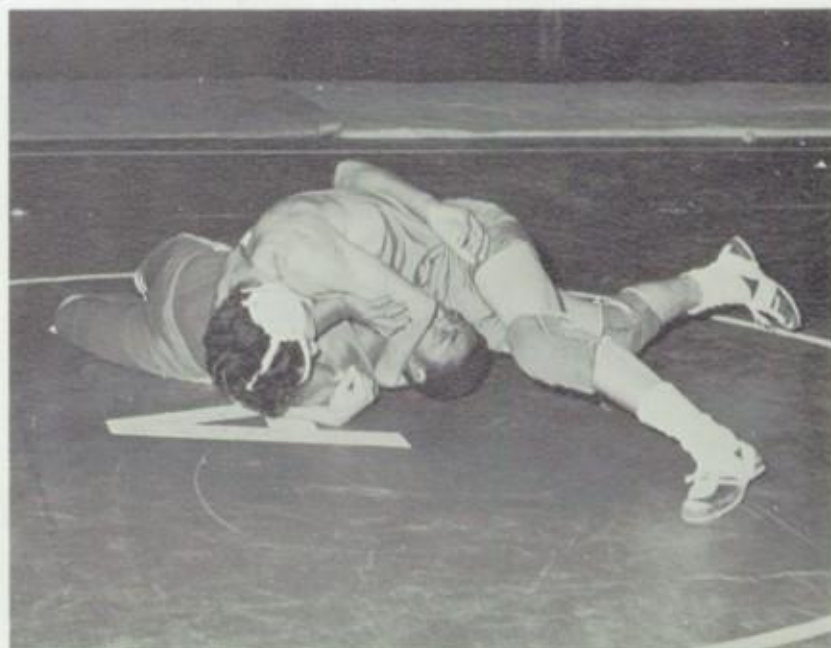

The season was not a success, as we only won one meet. Even more discouraging, though, was losing so many by only a few points. The veteran teams in our league were able to beat us with relatively little trouble, due in part to the lack of wrestlers in the heavier weight classes and inexperienced boys in some of the other classes.

Freshman Peter Ross had the best record, with fourteen wins, one tie, and only three losses. Ten of his wins were by pinning his opponent. At the league tournament, Roger Skinner won a third place medal and Jim Hermann collected a fourth, in their respective weight classes. Rick Cavallera represented the team as captain of the Varsity squad, and wrestled well in the 154 pound class. The J.V. team won more meets than the Varsity, but this can't be used as a fair basis for comparison, as the J.V. squad outnumbered their opponents upon several occasions.

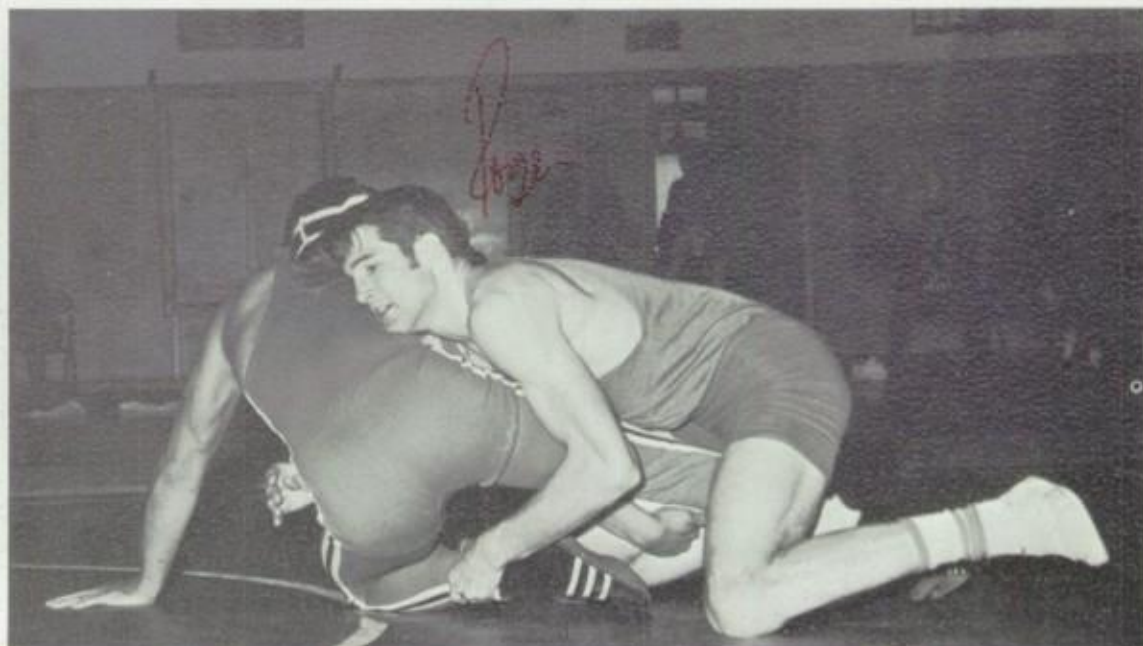

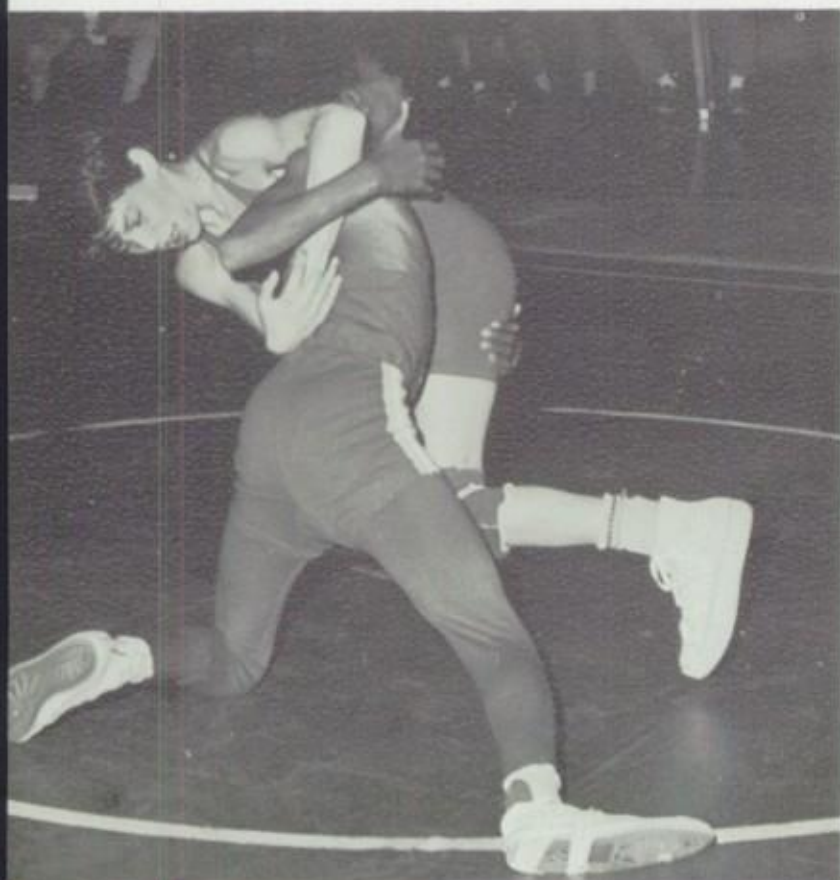

There was a good turnout at the beginning of the season, with over fifty boys coming out. At the end of the season there were only twenty-five men left, and to have a full team we needed twenty-six, having one man in each Varsity and J.V. weight class. To fill several positions we often had to move men up from their proper weight classes. This team weakness can only be cured by having more fellows come out for wrestling. When that time comes we will enjoy a winning team.

Leroy Cisneros has it all wrapped up.

Peter Ross moves to add another win to his record.

Roger Skinner stops a "switch" by grabbing his foe's ankle.

VARSITY BASEBALL

ROW 1: Tim Taylor, Rob Tracey, Kevin O'Gorman, Steve Valenzuela, Larry Gaunt, Ed Bernard. ROW 2: John Whitman, Jim

Perry, Mike Piasente, Peter VanCoops, Bill Haskins, Steve Layne, George Williams, George Jaekle, Coach Greenwood.

Mike Piasente winds up.

The future looks bright for baseball at Albany High. This year's Varsity team has six junior starters returning for next season. With a positive attitude and strong pitching from Bill Haskins, Steve Valenzuela and Mike Piasente during the 1968 and 1969 seasons, Albany has the potential to press the top teams for the EBAL championship.

Captains Kevin O'Gorman and Rob Tracey.

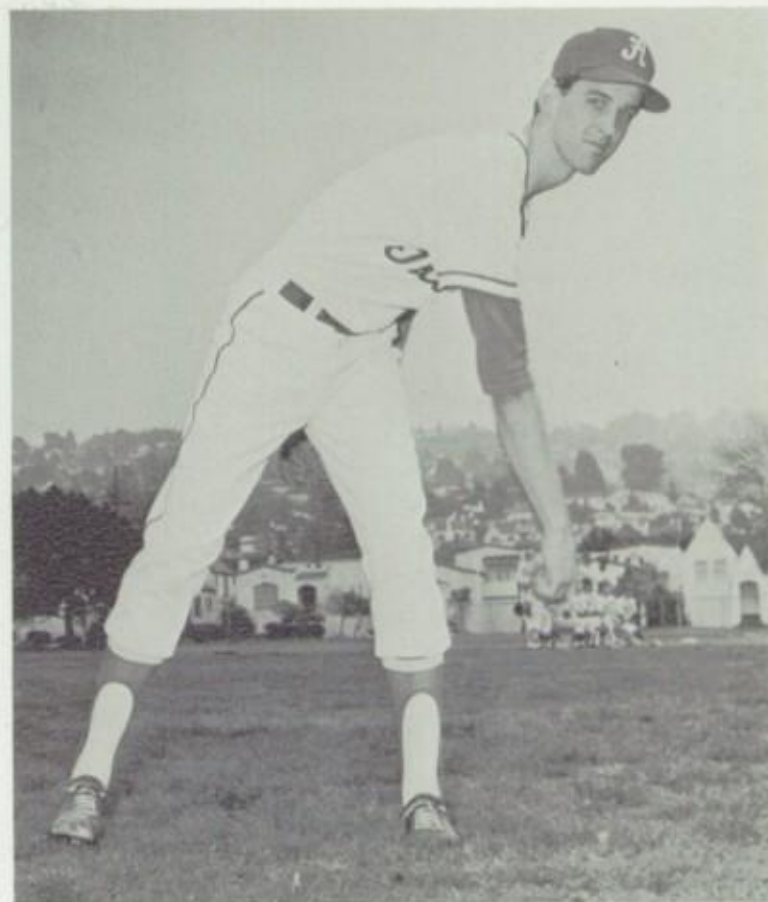

Steve Valenzuela

Livermore	4-19
Amador	4-23
Liberty	4-26
John Swett	4-30

Amador	5- 7
Livermore	5-10
John Swett	5-14
Liberty	5-17
Granada	5-24

Kevin O'Gorman gets the ball in time to put out the opposition.

Bill Haskins, one of the three Varsity pitchers.

John Whitman fouled this one off.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

ROW 1: Tom Turner, Allen Hoggatt, Mark Wills, Tom Drennan, Martin Valli, Tony Diaz. ROW 2: Gene Rossi, Bob Gherlone, Randy

Hansen, Tom Dyer, Tim Johnson, Curt Pihl, Mark Charbonnier, Bob Fisher, Larry Dutcher, Mike Granko, Coach Ketlinsky.

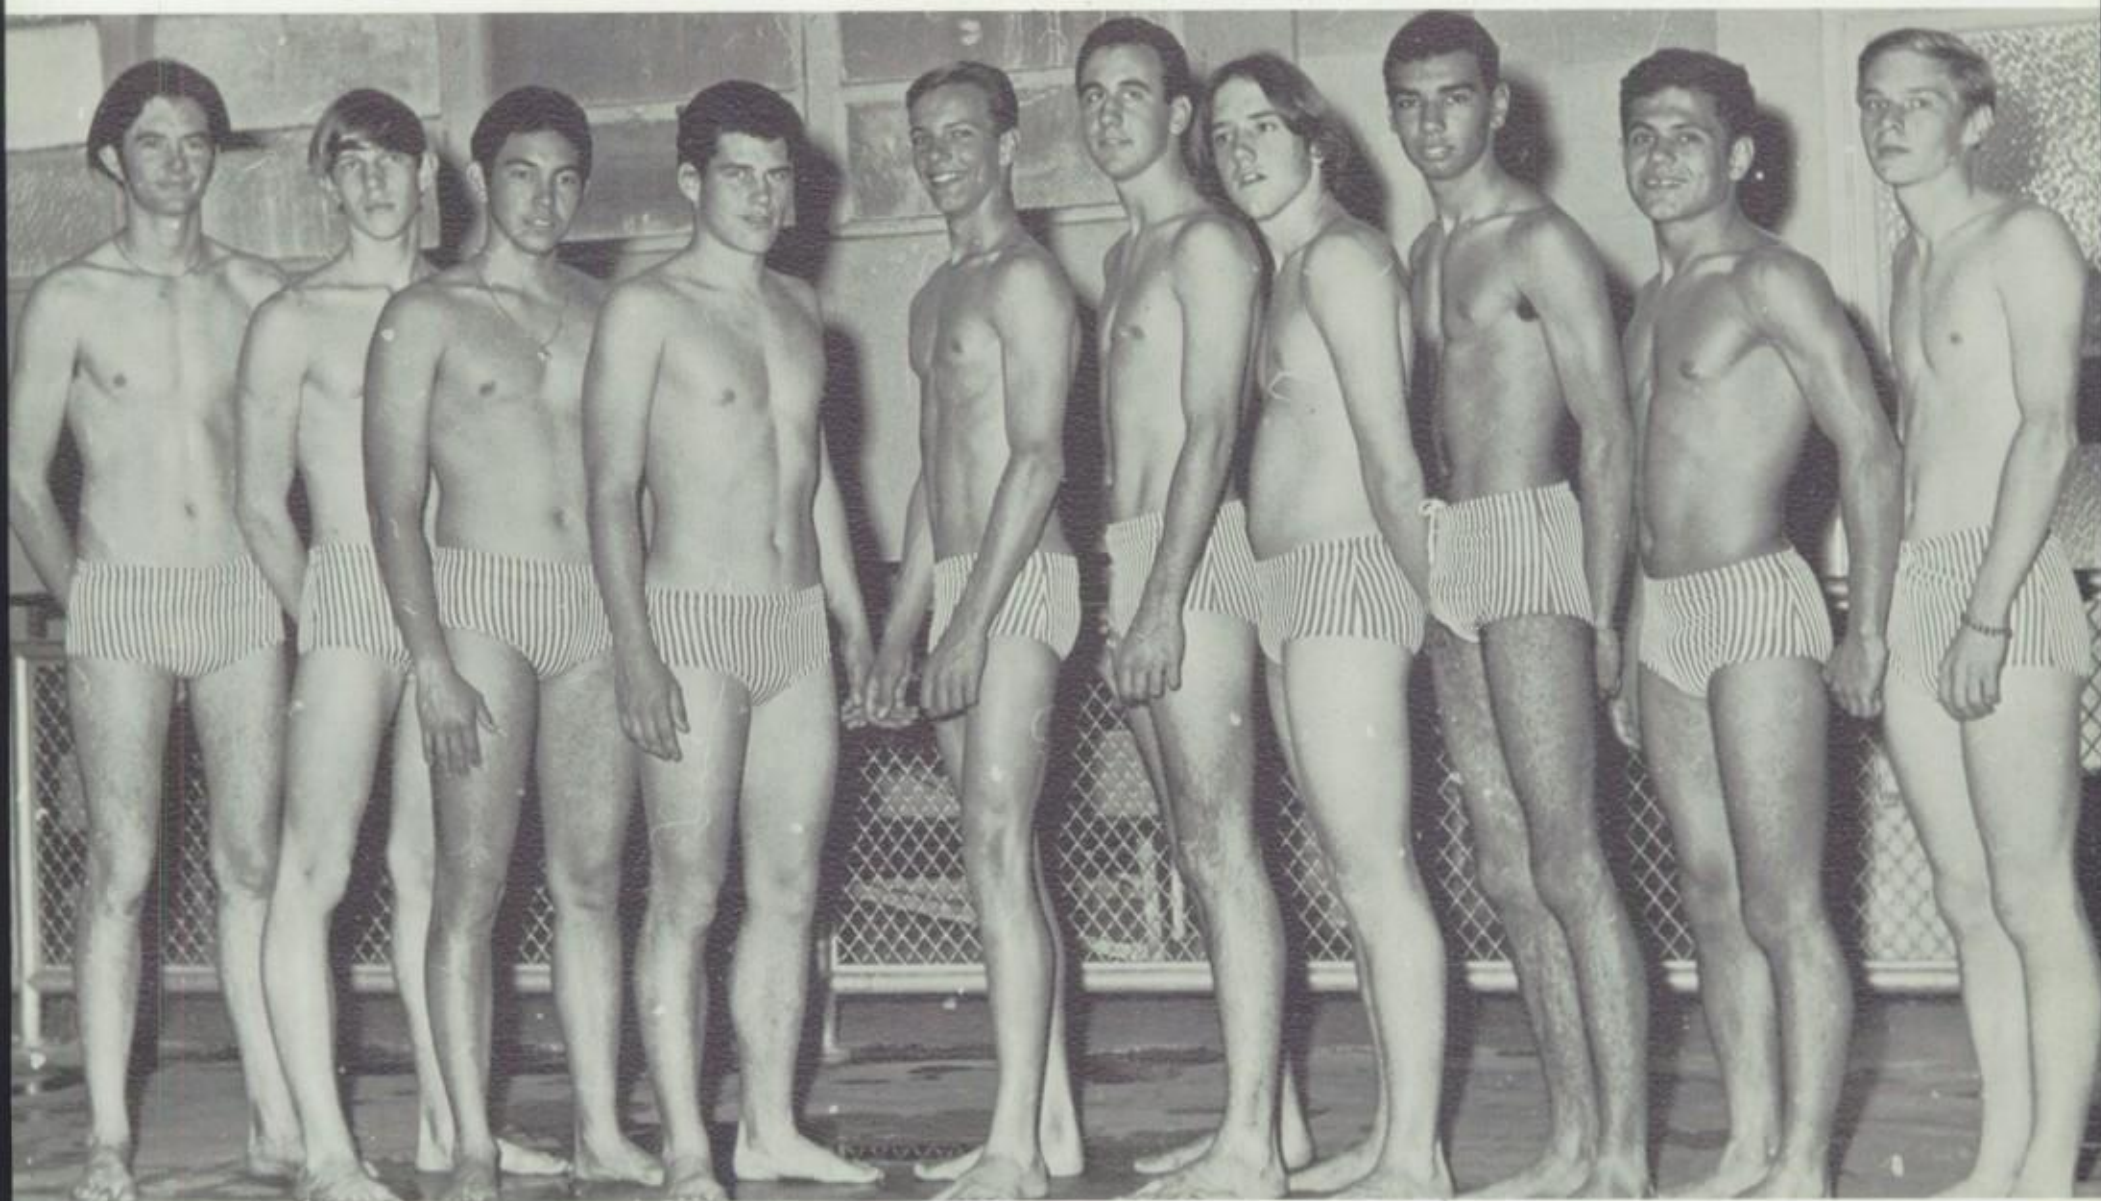

Coaches Greenwood and Ketlinsky talk over their starting line-ups.

Coach Ketlinsky feels that the J.V. team has a good chance at the championship this year. The team is young and eager to learn, with a strong pitching staff, several very quick players and a number of strong hitters. Tom Dyer leads the pitching staff with capable replacements in Larry Dutcher, Curt Pihl, Mark Charbonnier, and Tom Turner. With some improvement, this team may dominate the EBAL, and will help substantially in next year's J.V. and Varsity efforts.

Curt Pihl gets in some batting practice.

Captain Noel Lavery, Coach Carl Dwight, Captain Lloyd Hawkinson.

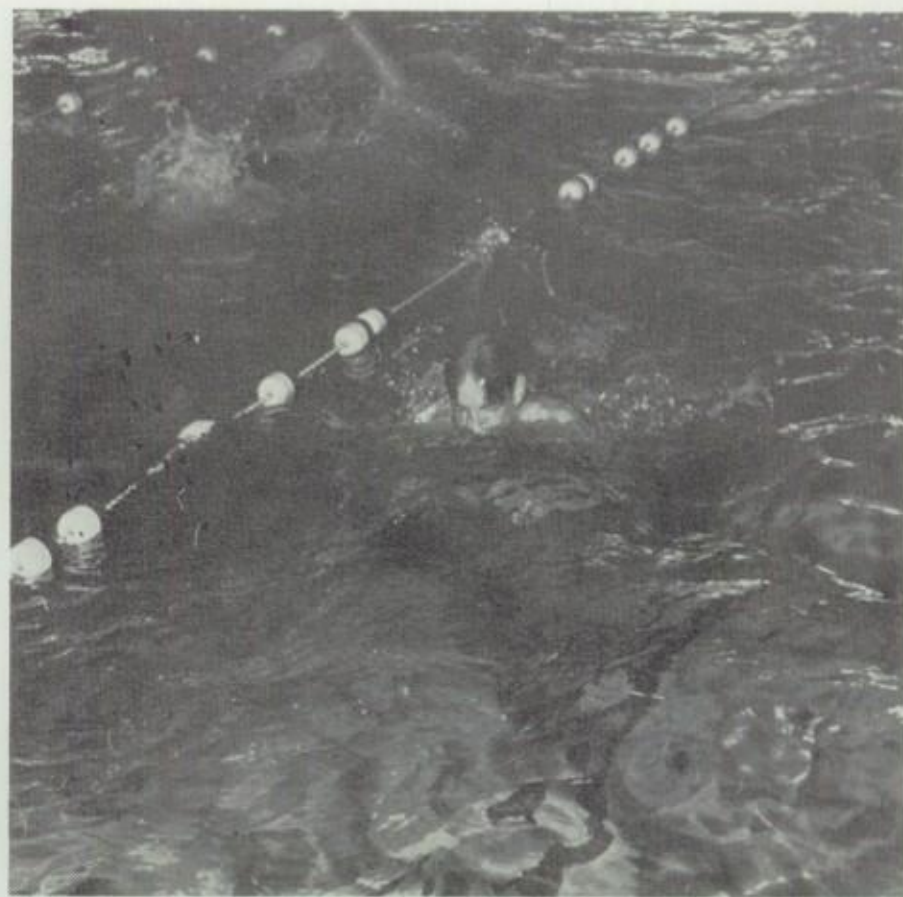

A good start is an important part of swimming competition.

The Varsity swimming team is expected to do well in EBAL competition this year. Coach Carl Dwight expects at least a fourth place finish. Top Varsity swimmers include Sophomore Noel Lavery and Seniors Bob Graham, Lloyd Hawkinson, Ted Valli, Mike Pedrick, Richard Kho, and Farrokh Marashi. The team has been working very hard this season, and the loss of the graduating Seniors will distract from the balance of the team for 1969. Noel Lavery is again expected to go to the North Coast swim meet. Last year, as a Freshman, he received two third places, and should finish much higher this year. Juniors Tom Matson and Kirk Landaker are expected to place in their events at the League Meet this year, and will be able to do a lot to help the team next season.

Kirk Landaker, Albany's only diver

Ted Valli takes the lead in the 100 yd. breaststroke.

3-11	Richmond
3-13	Canyon
3-20	Liberty
3-27	John Swett
4- 3	Amador
4-17	Livermore
4-24	Granada
5- 1	E.B.A.L. Meet
5- 3	San Rafael Military Acad.
5-11	N.C.S. Division II
5-17	North Coast Meet

Albany has a very strong "B" team this year. Mr. Dwight thinks that they will place at least third in league competition this year, as they did last year. When these boys move up to Varsity competition they should be a factor to contend with for league championship honors.

Some of the guys relax between events.

John Waldman Trophy
Not shown

The Track outlook appears very bright for this season. Outside of Seniors Rick Cavallera, Ken Potter and Bob Wright, our Track hopes for the future rest mainly with Juniors Rich Goforth, Gary De Mercurio, Greg King, Kirk Landaker and Vic Stallone. With the larger number of underclassmen returning next year, Track is expected to have a good future at Albany.

During the Fall, Bob Wright, Gary De Mercurio, Greg King, Bill Millard, and Vic Stallone competed in Cross-Country events with fair results for a first year team.

3-14	John Swett
3-20	Benicia & Courtland
3-28	Livermore
4- 4	Amador
4-18	Granada & C.S.D.
4-20	Benicia Relays
4-25	John Swett
4-27	El Cerrito Relays
5- 2	Liberty & Benicia
5- 4	Castro Valley Invitational
5-10	E.B.A.L. Meet
5-17	N.C.S. Meet
5-31	California State Meet

Cross-Country Track Team: Gary De Mercurio, Greg King, Vic Stallone, Bill Millard, Bob Wright.

John Petrie didn't clear the bar this time.

Rich Goforth practices for the low hurdles.

Bob Wright has turned in several near record times in the 880.

Bill Millard practices handoffs with Gary De Mercurio.

FROSH-SOPH TRACK

ROW 1: Wayne Morimoto, Jim Tamura, Craig Bain, Glen Kenele, Wade Klatt, Ray Straub, Bob Stovel, Frank Pio, Juris Sinats.
ROW 2: Bruce Corey, Jon Etingoff, Herb Russell, Kirk Sutherland,

Mark de la Torre, Steve Eggert, Gary de Lucchi, Peter Heymans, Todd Bachman, Andy Lennert, Kurt Lenhart, Tom De Tar, Tom Miller, Larry Burton, Manager.

This year's Frosh-Soph team is expected to be one of the strongest in the league. This team is going to form the backbone of a strong Varsity team in coming years. Glen Kenela and Gary de Lucchi have turned in some very good performances so far this season, and will be great assets next year.

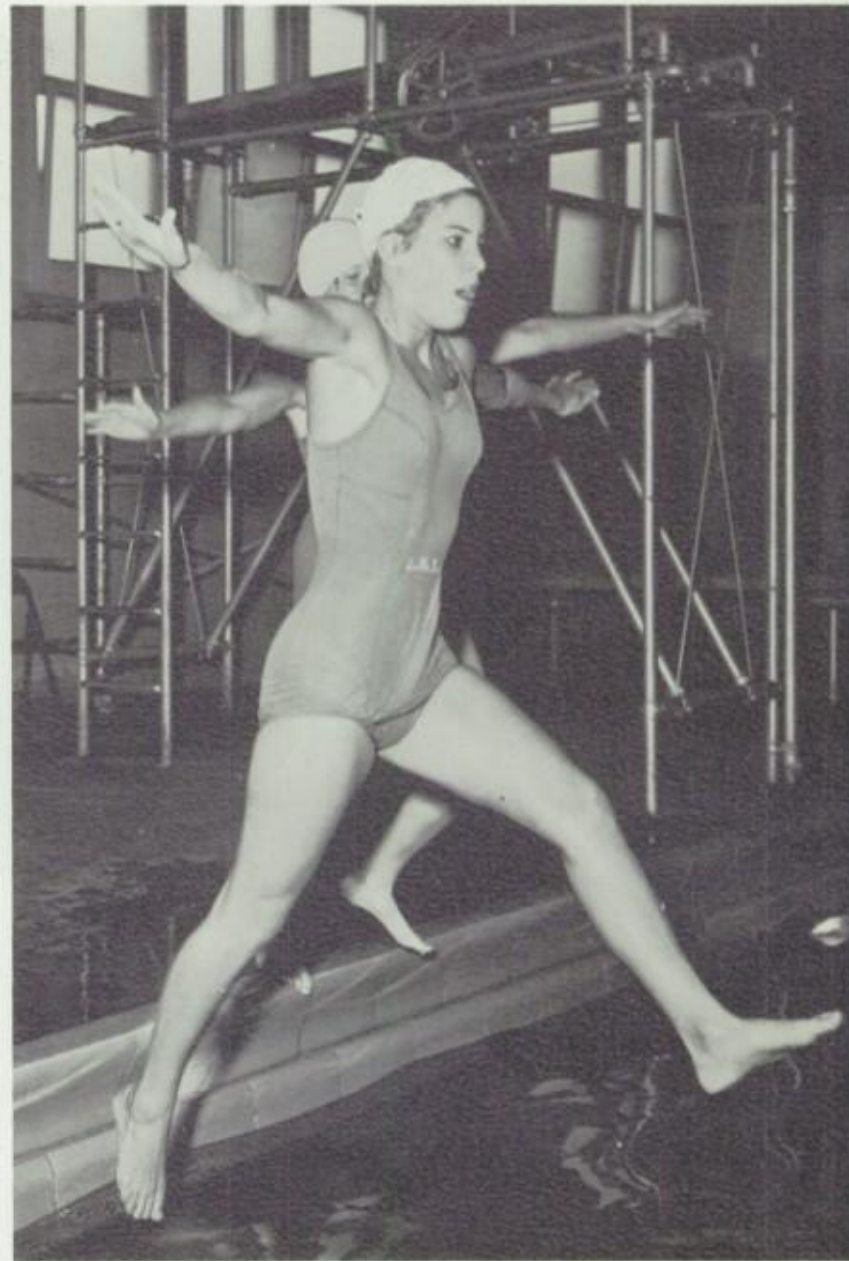

Bill Millard is the anchor man in the 440 relay and runs the 220 and the 440.

GAA

Miss Seeger, Laura Batterman, Linda Richard, Sherry Petersen, Yvonne Beckman, Bonnie Pullen.

For the second consecutive year Albany High has had a girl's track team. Although the team is small, its members are active and enthusiastic. Members are: Laura Batterman, Yvonne Beckman, Diane Onweller, Sherry Petersen, Sarah Petrie, Bonnie Pullen and Linda Richard. Miss Seeger expects a good future for girl's track at Albany.

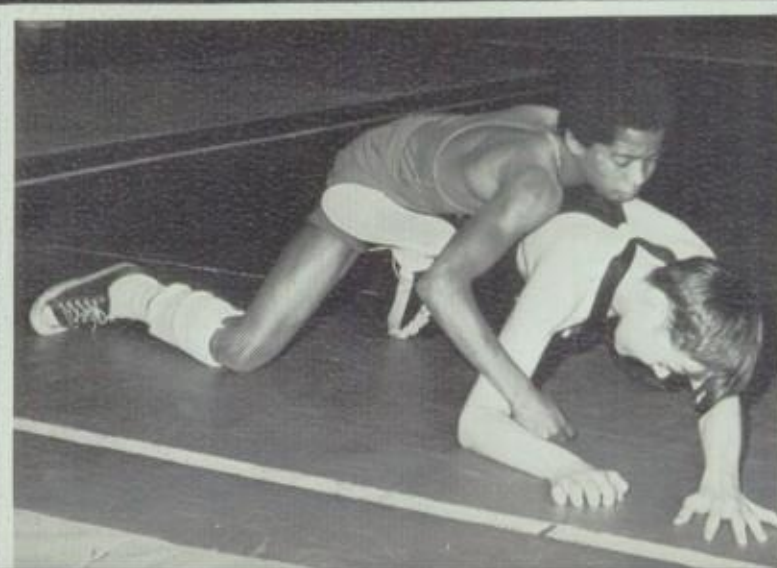

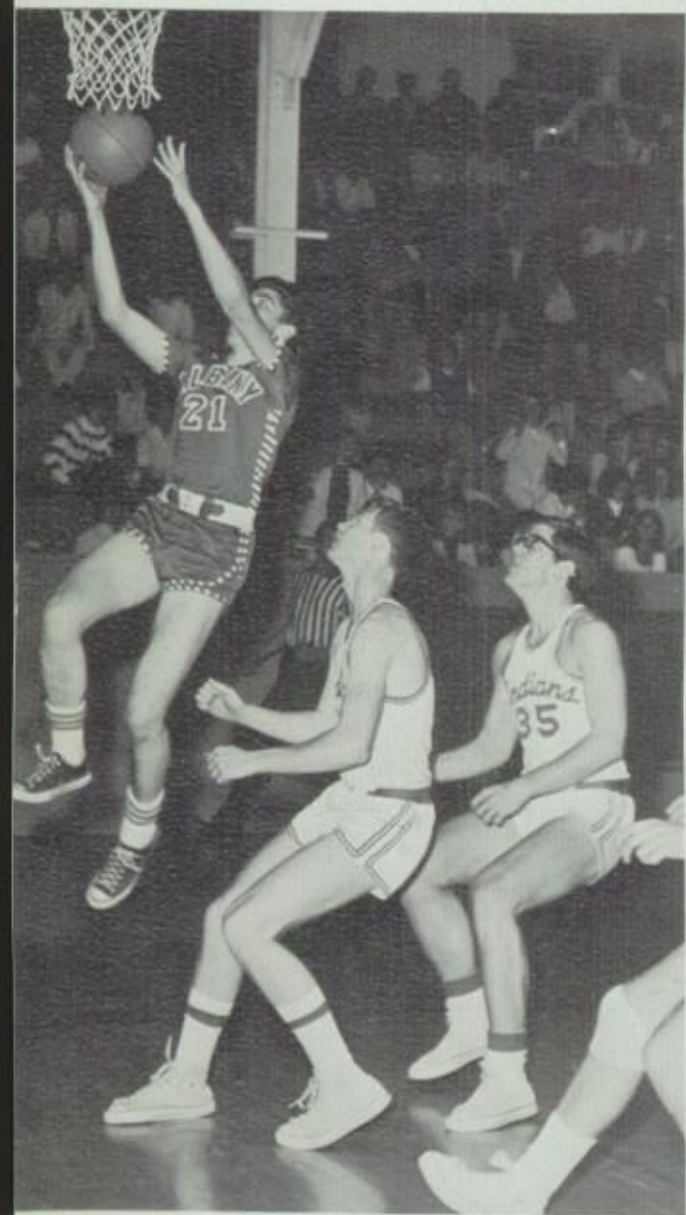

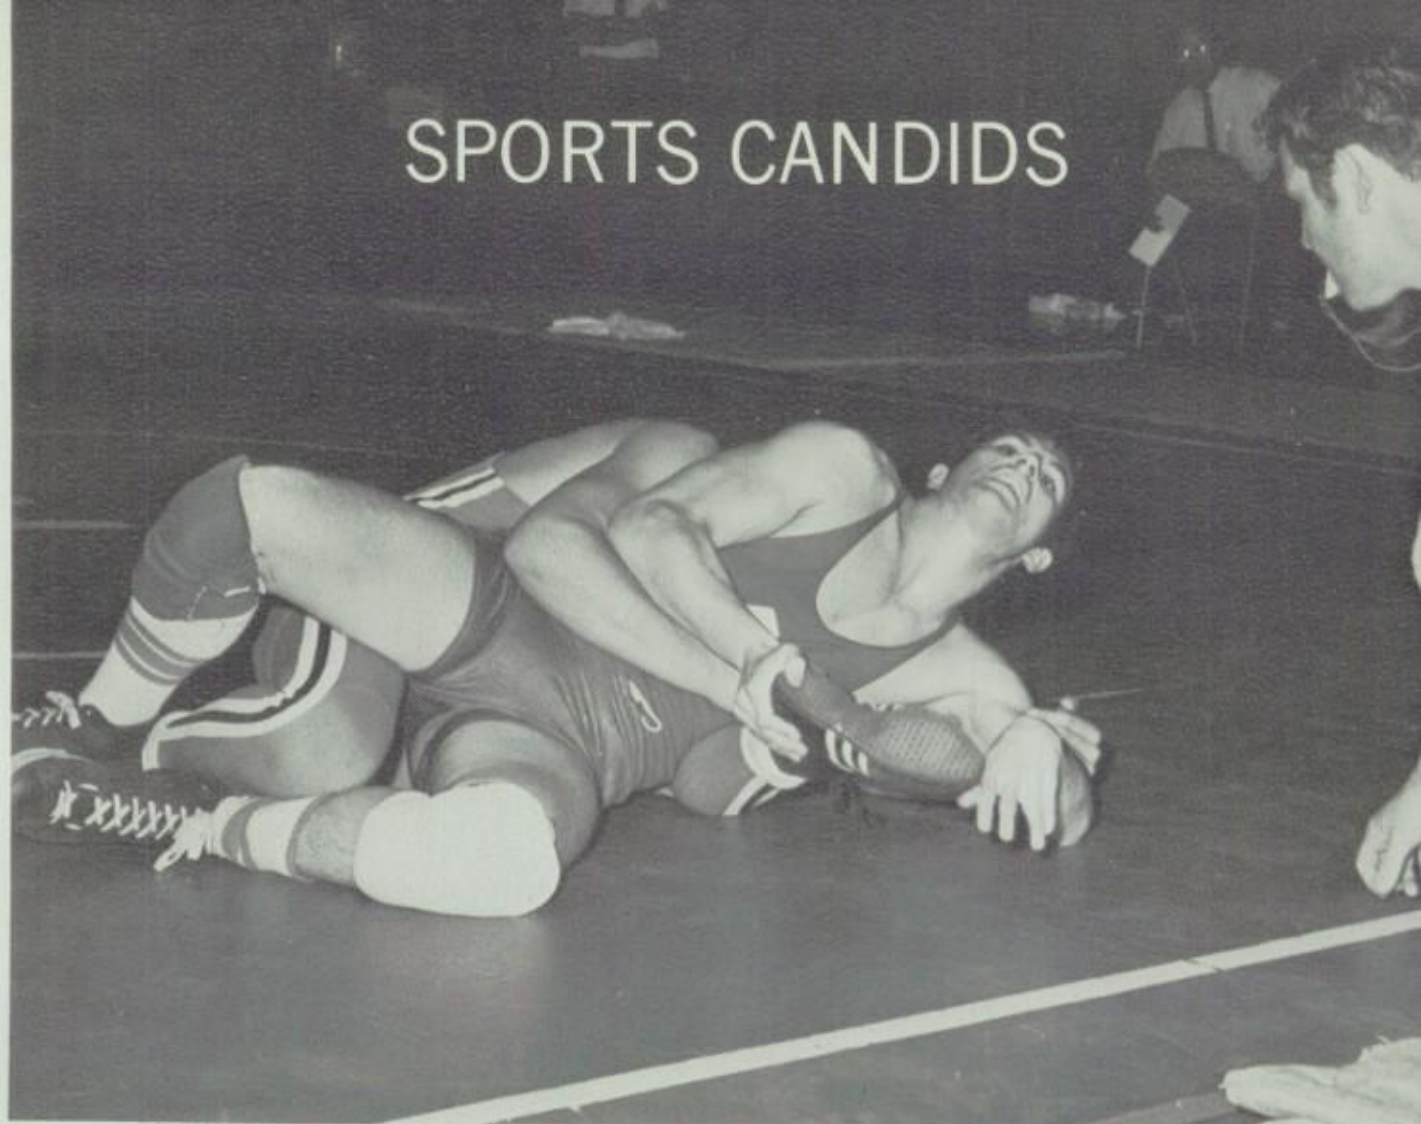

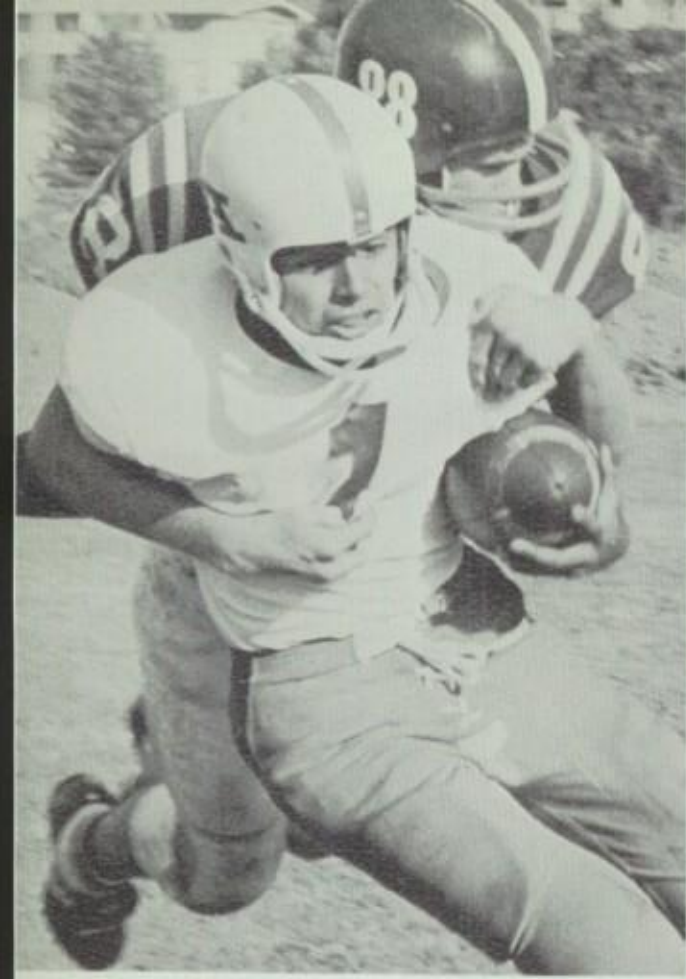

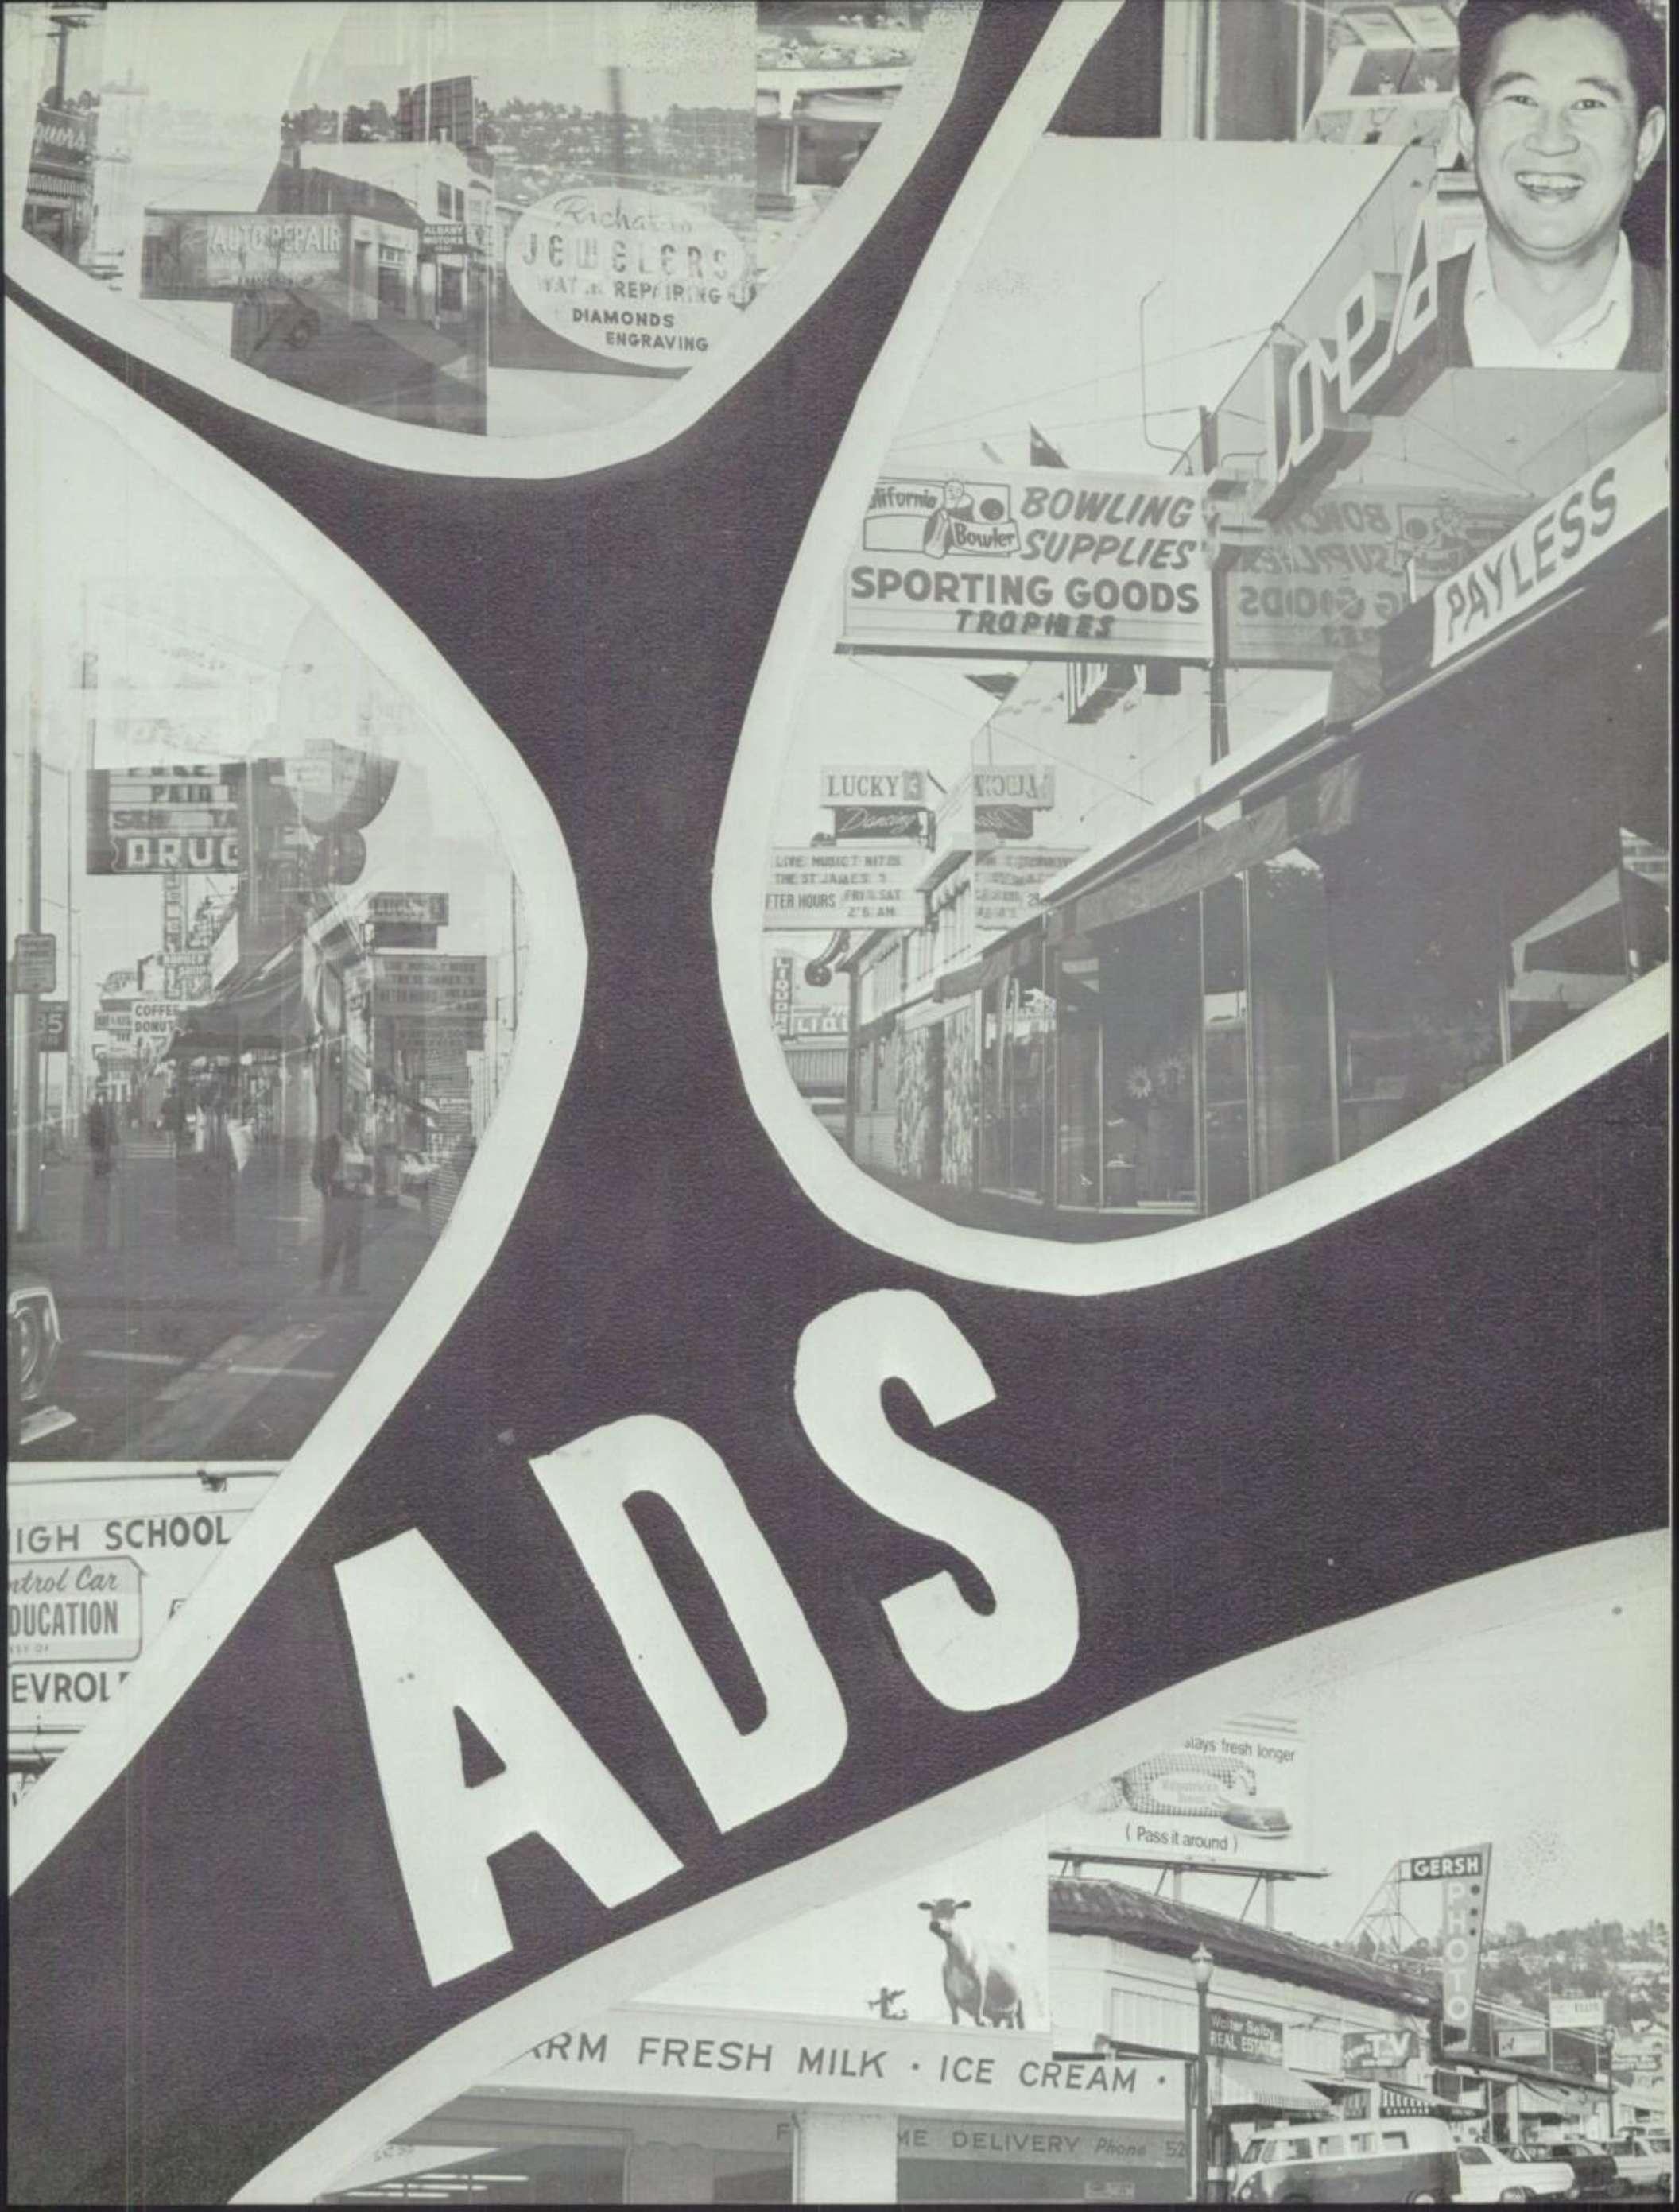

Linda Fagerlund tries walking on water.
